On June 10, 2014 President Barack Obama signed the 65th Infantry Regiment "Borinqueneers" Congressional Gold Medal into law which awarded a Congressional Gold Medal to the 65th Infantry Regiment. Similar in nature to the famed Tuskegee Airmen and other segregated U.S. military units, the 65th Infantry Regiment Borinqueneers were the largest, longest standing, and only active-duty segregated Latino military unit in U.S. history. Hailing from Puerto Rico, the Borinqueneers overwhelmingly distinguished themselves in battle all the while enduring the additional hardships of segregation and discrimination and were active from 1899-1959.
