Communication may include but not be limited to:

- Reading comprehension and active listening.
- Effective interpersonal communication.
- Effective non-verbal communication.
- Effective public communication in semi-formal and formal settings.
- Writing that has a clear purpose in relation to an appropriately targeted audience.
- Writing that is focused, developed, organized, coherent, unified and correct.

Cultural Literacy

Students will understand the impact of the variations among and within cultures.

Cultural literacy may include but not be limited to:

- Knowledge of, respect for, and sensitivity towards individuals of diverse ethnicity, age, gender, sexual orientation, and religious affiliations as well as towards those individuals with diverse abilities and from diverse socio-economic classes.
- Awareness of populations and countries worldwide.
- Social responsibility.
- Ethical values of good citizenship.
- Aesthetic values and artistic endeavors across diverse cultures.
- Variations of human behavior.
- Interdependence between culture and the environment.

Information and Technical Literacy

Students will use appropriate technology to locate, evaluate, and effectively process information.

Information and Technical Literacy may include but not be limited to:

- Finding and evaluating relevant resources and data.
- Using appropriate technologies to conduct and/or present inquiry and research.
- Citing and documenting resources appropriately.
- The ethical use of information, social media, or networking.
- Ability to navigate within a digital environment.

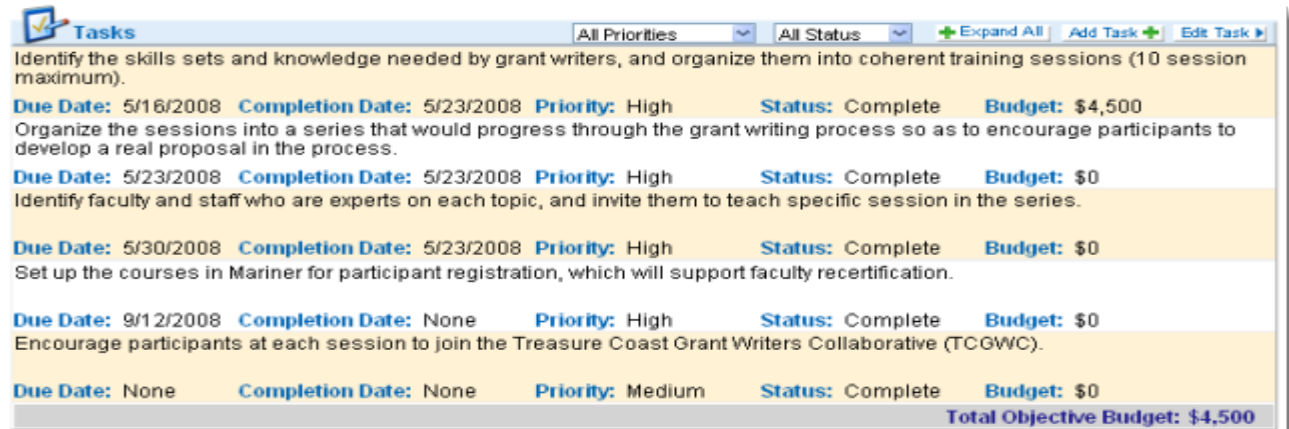

Strategic and Annual Plans

Strategic Planning Priority

To fulfill its vision, carry out its mission, and live its values, Daytona State College established strategic directions as the foundation for its future in its 2010-2013 Strategic Plan.

Annual Developmental Objectives

The 2010-11 Annual Plan has developmental objectives that link to the Colleges 2010-13 Strategic Plan.

SPOL Unit Plans: Type of Service

Administrative Support Service

Administrative support service units maintain College operations in support of the College's instructional programs and institutional outcomes.

Community/Public Service

Community/public service units offer activities and programs that meet the needs of the College and local communities for cultural enrichment, community engagement, and lifelong learning. The College's community/public service units support community development through civic, charitable, business, and professional organizations. Academic courses and programs often have learning activities related to experiential and/or service learning that are a part of the academic units and apply to this standard. Community/public service units support institutional outcomes.

Educational

Education delivered in the classroom that supports the student learning outcome process both at the program and course level.

Educational Support Service

Educational support service units contribute to student learning, instruction, or access. The educational support units provide services that relate to students and are part of the institution's overall learning environment. Educational support service units support the institutional outcomes.

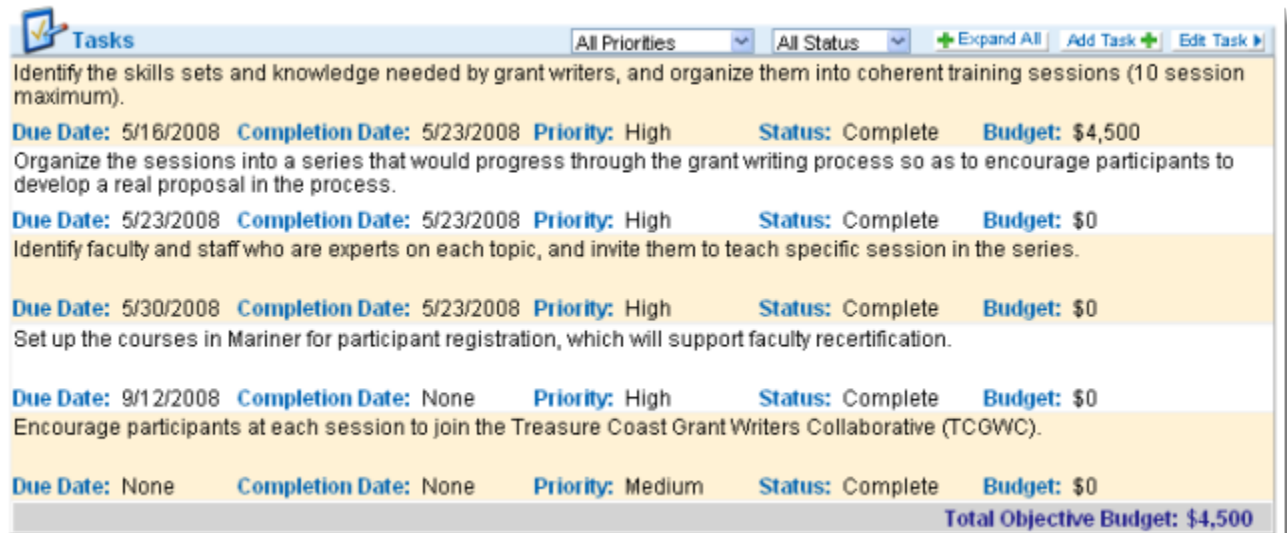

Assessment

Intended Results

List the results you want to achieve both from the objective overall and from specific tasks or strategies.

Assessment Measures

Describe the measurement tools that you will use and/or the methodologies you will employ to gather data. This might also include existing data sources.

Fundamental Assumptions

1. The process of planning is as important, if not more important, than the plan itself.
2. Successful planning depends on leadership, communication, assessment, and a knowledge of organizational culture.
3. The goal of strategic planning is organizational improvement and change.
4. The strategic planning process should evaluate funding and resources.
