

DAYTONA
STATE COLLEGE

School of Emergency Services

Conducting Florida Officer Internal Affairs Investigations

“A hands-on approach to a complex topic”

24 Hour Course to Choose from

Select either

December 6-8, 2011 or April 24-26, 2012

8 am – 5 pm daily

1200 International Speedway Blvd.
Building 110 Room 112 Conference Center
Bergengren Building-Daytona Beach

This course is designed for agency internal affairs investigators, agency supervisors or internal affairs supervisors

In today’s litigious society, this is one class you do not want to miss having on your resume!

Topics to be covered include:

- *Florida Officer’s Bill of Rights and how they apply
- *The New Florida Law as it applies to IA Investigators
- *Pitfalls to avoid Legal issues with the new IA laws
- *Criminal complaint procedures and the IA
- *Procedures for anonymous complaints
- *How to select and IA Investigator and set up a unit
- *Agency Procedures and Polices to have in place
- *Assessment strategies for complaint handling
- *Lifestyle and Stress for the IA investigator
- *Florida time lines that govern investigations
- *Public records laws
- *Case studies
- *Interviewing and communication techniques
- *Garrity Case Law and how it works and applies
- *Understanding the role of the IA investigator in various legal hearings-do’s and don’ts
- *Interfacing with Unions and Legal Councils
- *The IA investigator as an agency resource

AND MUCH MORE....

Instructor: Chief William Liquori (ret)

William Liquori, a 44-year veteran of law enforcement. Mr. Liquori is the retired Police Chief of Altamonte Springs, Florida-an agency recognized for its innovative programs and as a leader in Community Policing and Problem Solving. During his career, he has worked as a consultant for police agencies across the nation to evaluate and manage police operations. He has often served as an interim police chief since his retirement. Chief Liquori was the Chairman and long standing 9 year member of the Florida Criminal Justice Standards & Commission. His experience and expertise in dealing with labor unions, citizen complaints, internal investigations, rules of civil procedure and litigation proves to be invaluable to the IA Investigator perfecting their skills.

Fee $299.00

Includes training sessions and course materials

TO REGISTER

Contact School of Emergency Services

To make payment arrangements

At Ph # 386-506-3272 or Email Jodie Swanson at swansoj@daytonastate.edu

Assistance can be provided with area hotel accommodations www.daytonastate.edu/cj Advanced & Specialized Training