Two of the most recognized women leaders in law enforcement have teamed up to bring an exciting day of training and inspiration to the police profession. Sergeants Betsy Smith and Nancy Fatura will lead students through 8 hours of intensive, interactive training that will inspire, inform, and provide students with information they can use immediately to improve and enhance both their professional and personal lives. This program is the culmination of over 25 years of research and experience brought to you by the veteran trainer who created the original “Street Survival for Women.”

Constantly updated, our philosophy of ‘teaching by storytelling’ cites inspirational examples of courageous men and women, including Sgt. Fatura’s personal story of resiliency and triumph. This class will inspire, motivate, and encourage women not just to survive, but to WIN in every aspect of life. For group rates call 847-875-3620 or go to www.femaleforces.com for more information.

Included in this unique training:

- The “Not Today” mindset, on every call, on every shift
- Why “survival” is minimalistic and we must train to WIN!
- Reigniting your passion for this profession
- Successfully managing critical incidents physically, mentally and emotionally
- Embracing your “Warrior Ethos” regardless of your career path
- Secrets to real fitness for real women
- Effective, realistic communication and leadership skills
- Learning to trust and enhance your natural intuition
- How to “lead, mentor, and inspire” others
- Learning to become truly resilient
- Understanding & Utilizing “Gender Intelligence”
- And so much more!
