

L.E.A.D.S.™ Law Enforcement Active Diffusion Strategies

Law Enforcement Active Diffusion Strategies When Confronting Resistance and Aggression

May 18, 2012

This is a classroom based combat-confrontation avoidance course. Based upon the L.O.C.K.U.P.® combat system, it teaches within a classroom setting how to recognize aggression and to not stimulate aggression. Students learn Active Diffusion Strategies that can avoid or resolve interactions by employing tactical de-escalation methods or distraction techniques that promote successful tactical applications when de-escalation does not work. Officers must also understand when de-escalation techniques are not working and how to coordinate and deploy successful strategies. Instruction uses lectures, demonstrations, scenario building and role play.

INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES:

- Understanding the principals of risk management for officer safety
- Identifying indications of hostility through body language
- Identify professional benefits of active diffusion strategies
- Learn methods of effective verbal de-escalation strategies
- Understanding physiological changes during aggression
- Learn to use cognitive limitations for active diffusion
- Learn methods to re-direct the thought process through positive direction
- Learn the importance of professional posturing
- Identity different communications styles with appropriate response tactics
- Learn methods of motivational interviewing skills
- Learn methods of distraction to obtain tactical advantages
- Learn communication and physical strategies to de-escalate situations
- Learn how to avoid communications that may be negative
- Learn how active strategies blend with a total law enforcement focus
- Learn how communication skills and tactics reduce civil liability

"I cannot over emphasize the way he works on developing the mind, body and WARRIOR SPIRIT of the student, like no one else and nothing else that I know of."
