This course may be used for mandatory retraining or salary incentive

This informative course is designed to provide the law enforcement or corrections officer with information regarding narcotics and dangerous drug investigations. This course will provide an understanding of the problematic, legal, investigative, and evidentiary aspects of narcotic and dangerous drug investigations and money laundering techniques used by the drug trade. The instructor for this course brings both street and investigative experience to the classroom.

Students must pass a written end of course exam with a score of 80% or better.

Instructor:

Colonel Jack Maxwell (retired) is a favorite instructor among law enforcement practitioners. His career spans over 34 years. He is retired from the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office. During his career he was assigned multi- jurisdictional drug smuggling operations, commanded a 63 person S.W.A.T. team and was a senior hostage negotiator. His practical teaching style makes this course beneficial for any officer.
