Pat Bergeson & Annie Sellick Daytona State College Stringed Instrument Swap Meet

Guitar and stringed instrument enthusiasts from all over the area will gather to buy, sell, swap and trade. Master guitarist Pat Bergeson will conduct a master class for students and internationally known jazz singer Annie Sellick will perform with her band to round out the evening.

A versatile guitarist as well as chromatic and diatonic harmonica player, Pat's style incorporates jazz, blues, rock and finger style. He is known for his session work with a variety of artists such as Chet Atkins, Jerry Reed, Lyle Lovett, Alison Krauss, Dolly Parton, Peter Frampton, Michael McDonald and many others. A Nashville native, Annie Sellick is a mainstay at the major jazz venues and has worked with all of her favorite jazz artists including Beegie Adair, Jeff Coffin, Bela Fleck and Rod McGaha. Annie makes regular appearances in Atlanta, New York, Los Angeles, Germany, Montreal and has a growing fan base in Japan where she visits twice a year to tour jazz clubs in the major cities.

Daytona State Classic Theater presents

Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare

"Romeo and Juliet", is one of Shakespeare's most eponymous tragedies, with the title now being synonymous with "star-crossed lovers". Romeo and Juliet become involved in a passionate and hasty love affair, and are forced to keep their love hidden from their respective families. This leads to the deaths of both characters and the tragic aspect of the play as the Montagues and Capulets decide, too late, to put their feud behind them.
