Daytona State Women’s Basketball Skills Camp will give players an opportunity to improve all facets of their game. From agilities and defensive footwork to ballhandling, offensive footwork and creating space for shots, the skills camp will equip each player with all of the tools necessary to raise their game to another level.

The Skills camp will also allow participants to put their skills to use in various 1 on 1, 3 on 3, & 5 on 5 competitions. Come and join the Lady Falcon Family for a fun day of Basketball at the Beach!!!!

CAMP DIRECTORS

Head Coach Cal Cochran
Assistant Coach Brittany Young

Cal Cochran brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the game of basketball having worked with both men and women at the collegiate level. Named head Coach of the Lady Falcon Program in April 2008, he has led his teams to three Mid-Florida Conference titles while also being named Mid-Florida Coach of the Year in each of those three seasons. Cochran coached in the 2006 Pete Newell Big Man Camp, where Cleveland Cavalier, NBA Center, Andrew Bynum was a participant. He also coached in the 2007 BIG MAN Footwork Camp with former NBA Sacramento Kings Assistant Coach, Otis Hughley and former Atlanta Hawk Assistant Coach and 17 year NBA veteran, Alton Lister.

Brittany Young begins her third year as an assistant coach at Daytona State College. A true passion for skill development, Young has trained players of all levels from beginners to WNBA professionals and Olympic Gold Medalists. Young was the director of the Pearl Moore Fundamental Basketball Camp in Florence, SC. The former graduate assistant at the University of South Carolina has coached at various basketball camps across the southeast.
