FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What should I do if I want to add a dependent to my coverage in the future, will I be required to provide supporting documentation at that time?

You will be required to provide documentation verifying your dependent's eligibility upon enrollment. Additionally, FCSRMC is committed to ensuring continued plan compliance and may conduct focused dependent eligibility verifications in the future.

How do I obtain the required documentation?

An official certificate of every birth, death, marriage, and divorce should be on file in the locality (state, city or county) where the event occurred. You may also visit the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's vital records page at <http://www.cdc.gov/nchs/w2w.htm> to request specific documents by state and obtain information on the approximate costs and time of delivery.

A copy of your tax return may be requested from the Internal Revenue Service by visiting <http://www.irs.gov/taxtopics/tc156.html?portlet=1> or by contacting the Internal Revenue Service at 1-800-829-1040.

What information must be included on birth and/or marriage certificates in order for them to be considered acceptable supporting documents?

Birth certificates must include the child’s name and must list the name of the employee or employee’s spouse as a parent of the child. The birth record or “short form” will not be accepted for the verification process because this document does not list the name of the mother or father.

All marriage certificates must be presently valid and include the date of marriage. Additionally, legal marriage certificates must show the marriage has been recorded by the appropriate county or state agency.

What type of tax form should I submit?

You should submit a copy of your filed Federal income tax form 1040, 1040A or 1040X (or 1040EZ for spouse only) or your State income tax form from the current or previous year showing your filing status and listing your dependents. To support your spousal relationship, you may submit a copy of your filed 1040 EZ or official transcript of your tax return.

What information must be included on my tax form in order for it to be considered an acceptable supporting document?

The entire tax return is not required, only the page that lists filing status and exemptions. The information regarding your marital status, the name of your spouse, and the name(s) of your dependents is required if applicable. Please block out personal financial data and social security numbers on your tax form prior to submission.
