

THE L. GALE LEMERAND ENTREPRENEURIAL SPEAKER SERIES PRESENTS:

INVENTOR AND DESIGNER SHERRILL MOSEE

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8
9:30 - 11 A.M.

DAYTONA BEACH CAMPUS
HOSSEINI CENTER

Sherrill Mosee is an electrical engineer turned fashion innovator. She invented, designed, and founded MinkeeBlue; the perfect travel bag to solve the problem of the "overload bag syndrome". She completed the Philly Fashion Incubator program and won the premiere show of America's Big Deal which secured her $100K to launch her bags in Macy's Department Stores. Sherrill and her bags have been featured on the Today Show, Forbes, Cosmopolitan, People Magazine, and sold on QVC.

Established by L. Gale Lemerand, a longtime resident and entrepreneur in Volusia County, in 2007, the L. Gale Lemerand Center for Entrepreneurship semi-annually hosts an event to encourage principles of entrepreneurship and to inspire students to strive for success in their chosen career. Mr. Lemerand maintains an active life guiding his various businesses and giving back to this community through his leadership and financial support for organizations.
