Intensive English Program (IEP) Continuing Education

Academic Purposes (EAP)
College Credit
The ELI will increase numbers of international students at DSC

The ELI has only one competitor within 50 miles of Daytona Beach

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE.
Most other State Colleges have an Academic English Language Component

Serve non-native speakers of English who do not have an affordable option for academic English in the area
To strengthen non-native speakers’ English language skills for personal enrichment or for academic preparation

Continuing education
Level (0400)
1 semester of intensive (18-20 hours a week)
Complete immersive

INTENSIVE ENGLISH PROGRAM
Designed for those who plan to pursue a college degree

1600 level
Semester courses
3 credit hours

ENGLISH FOR ACADEMIC PURPOSES
English for Academic Purpose courses

EAP1501 English Pronunciation
EAP1620 Academic Reading
EAP1640 Academic Writing
EAP1660 Grammar

SPRING 2019
Intensive English Program/Continuing Education

0400 series of 20 hours weekly

Speaking & Listening, Writing & Grammar, and Reading.

SPRING 2019
The English Language Institute will have 3 levels: 0400, 1500 and 1600.
PROGRESS THROUGH ELI

NOTE: STUDENTS MAY BEGIN AT ANY LEVEL DEPENDING ON PLACEMENT TEST RESULTS

IEP Intermediate (0400) Level

EAP High Intermediate (1500) Level

EAP Advanced (1600) Level

ENC1101 and DSC Degree Programs
IEP400: Accuplacer score of 70-84

EAP1500: Completion of IEP0400 level or, if new to DSC, Accuplacer score of 85-99

Note: In first phase, international students on F-1 visas will be accepted to DSC with IBT TOEFL and IELTS scores, but will need to take the Accuplacer to determine IEP or EAP placement.
WHAT COMES AFTER SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF EAP1600 LEVEL?

Students may enroll in ENC1101
FAQs

- Who can enroll in ELI courses? IEP and EAP courses are open to non-native English speaking students such as F-1 international students, Puerto Ricans and US immigrants.

- Can students attend part-time? There is no part-time option in the IEP. Students must enroll in all 0400 level courses.

  Cost: $3000 per term
Why don’t students just attend DSC’s ESOL program? ESOL is limited to US Citizens, naturalized Citizens, and Resident Aliens. It’s not an option international students on F-1 visas, and it is not English for academic purposes.
QUESTIONS?
The English Language Institute is Daytona State College’s academic English language program, which offers a continuing education sequence and college credit courses.

What courses does the program consist of?

Spring 2019 schedule includes four English for Academic Purpose courses offered in the morning. These courses include EAP1501 Accent Reduction, EAP1620 Academic Reading, EAP1640 Academic Writing, and EAP1660 Grammar.

Spring 2019 schedule includes a Continuing Education sequence of 20 hours weekly of class in Communication, Grammar, Writing, and Reading.

Coming in the Fall of 2019, The English Language Institute will include Level 1500 and Level 1600. With the successful completion of the EAP program, you will be ready to enroll in ENC 1101.

Which class should I take?

New students take a placement test when they arrive to determine their level. Applicants can sign-up now for the Accuplacer at the Assessment Services Centers located on the Daytona Campus (386) 506-3067 or on one of the other Daytona State College campuses. Assessment centers are open for testing Monday through Friday.

What is the difference between EAP and IEP courses?

EAP (English for Academic Purposes) is a program for students that want to earn academic credits toward pursuing a certificate or a degree at Daytona State College. The EAP course curriculum design helps students transition to further academic goals and career potential(s).

IEP (Intensive English Program) is a program for students that want to improve their English before beginning academic studies at Daytona State College, and/or improve their English for professional advancement and achieve their personal goal of gaining greater proficiency in English.

MORE QUESTIONS?

For information about The English Language Institute, please contact Holly Hollins with the School of World Languages and Speech at 386-506-3716 or 386-506-3811.