New Directions supports the educational needs of Pell eligible students enrolled in a vocational certificate or A.S. degree by providing supplemental assistance for:

- Bus Vouchers
- Uniforms
- Tuition
- Educational Materials and Supplies
- Books
Who is Eligible?

You must meet at least one of the eligibility requirements:

- Single Parent (male or female)
- Displaced Homemaker
- Non-Traditional Student (those careers having less than 25% of their gender)
- Students with Documented Disabilities (must show verification)
- Individuals with limited English proficiency

And meet all of the following criteria:

- Be enrolled in an Associate in Sciences or Vocational Certificate
- Completed the current FAFSA
- Have a Cumulative GPA 2.50 or higher
- Not on Financial Aid Suspension
- Demonstrated need not met by Pell Grant or other scholarships
How To Apply:

Applications are available at:

✓ Academic Advising
✓ Financial Aid
✓ Admissions
✓ New Directions Website
✓ Center For Women and Men

Kenesha Curry, Vocational Specialist
Bldg. 300 Rm. 227A
(386) 506-3278

New Directions helps individuals gain marketable skills through specialized college-level and vocational training that can lead to immediate entry into many career and technical occupations. The program offers supplemental funding to Pell eligible students enrolled in a vocational certificate or A.S. degree program with a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA.

Application Submission Time Frame
- Spring 2018 Application - PDF
- Fall Semester: August - November
- Spring Semester: December - April
- Summer Semester: May - July

Am I Eligible?
You must meet at least one of the eligibility requirements to take advantage of the services offered through New Directions:

- Single Parent (male or female)
- Displaced Homemaker
- Non-Traditional Student (those careers having less than 25% of their gender)
- Students with Documented Disabilities (must show verification)
- Individuals with limited English proficiency

and meet all of the following criteria:

- Be enrolled in an Associate in Science or Occupational Certificate
- Completed the current KAPSA
- Have a Cumulative GPA 2.5 or higher
- Not on Financial Aid Suspension
- Demonstrate need not met by Pell Grant or other scholarships

Application Information

- Participants are required to show updated college transcripts.
- Participants must complete a mid-term grade review.
- Participants must also provide a new class schedule.

For more information please contact
Kenesha Curry, Vocational Specialist
Center For Women & Men, Bldg. 300 Rm. 227A
(386) 506-3278