Specialized Course- Mandatory Retraining Only

This top-notch one of a kind hands-on training provides the investigating officer or crime scene technician the training needed to process and re-create major crime scenes. It is designed for personnel interested in developing the skills needed to work violent crimes involving death or injury. Students will gain knowledge on how to collect and prepare physical evidence so they can be successful in court. With a mixture of classroom lecture, and actual blood stained patterns, students will learn how to investigate, photograph, document and interpret bloodstain evidence.

NOTE:

Students will have in class assignments, and homework reading material to complete. Students must wear long pants and closed toe shoes to class.

Instructor: Parker Forensics

FDLE Crime Lab Analyst Supervisor (retired) N. Leroy Parker's internationally recognized expertise, energetic style, and "do it right" personality makes this highly specialized course a sought after topic by seasoned investigators or crime scene technicians.

STUDENTS : PLEASE BRING A DIGITAL CAMERA TO CLASS AND NOTE TAKING MATERIALS.
